

Ambassador Club of Naples, Inc
1910 Gulf Shore Blvd. N.
Naples, FL 34102

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE RULES

- Q. What is the Ambassador Club?
A. The Club is a condominium of 32 units incorporated under Florida Statutes and governed by a Board of Directors numbering five (5) Members who are elected by Club Members. There is no land lease.
- Q. May I serve on the Board of Directors?
A. Yes, you are encouraged to participate in the management of the Club.
- Q. Is there any litigation pending against the Ambassador Club?
A. No.
- Q. What is the annual maintenance?
A. Currently, the quarterly maintenance is $3271.00 payable the first of Jan-Apr-July-Oct.
- Q. Do you have a reserve fund?
A. Yes. We have a reserve for Capital Expenditures. However, with a large expenditure the fund may not be sufficient to cover the total cost and a Special Assessment may be required.
- Q. Does each unit have a boat dock?
A. No. The docks are common property and are leased on the basis of availability, subject to Club rules and regulations. 12 to 30 ft. maximum length by 11'0" maximum beam for boats. Currently the annual fee is $1,200.
- Q. Can I have more than one parking space at the Ambassador Club?
A. No. Only one (1) space is designated for each unit. Guest parking is for visitors and service people only.
- Q. Can I install a washer and dryer in my unit?
A. No. The drains are already at their maximum capacity.
- Q. What is the procedure if I want to sell my apartment?
A. The Board of Directors must be notified in writing including the sale price at least twenty-one (21) days to listing the property. The Board in turn notifies all other Unit Owners who may make an offer before the unit is put on the market. See Procedure on re-sale of an apartment for more details.
- B. If I lease my apartment do I still have the use of the pool and dock facilities?
A. No. For the period of the lease you lose the use of your unit and all Club facilities.
